George H. Foulds, one of Washington Townships foremost citizens died at his home at high noon last Sunday, Nov. 5, 1911. He had been in bad health for sometime and suffered great pain. He was 67 years old at the time of his death. He was married to Miss Mary Pool, daughter of the late Monroe and Abbie Pool in 1872. By this union there were eleven children born, one dying in infancy. He leaves to mourn his loss the faithful wife, who was his helpmeet and wise counselor for nearly 40 years, and the 10 children. He professed religion a short time before he died. All grieve that they may see his face no more on earth, yet we sorrow not as those without hope. The writer knows his worth as a man. We were confined together in Rock Island Military prison at the closing end of the war for seven months. He never failed to do right and always bore in quietness the burdens imposed upon him. Funeral services were conducted at the home by Rev. Downing at 2 p. m. Nov. 7th. The body was then taken to Elmwood cemetery and laid to rest. The family has the sympathy of the entire community in their sad bereavement.

Death of W. W. Meng.

Died at his home here on Saturday, Nov. 4, 1911, William Wallace Meng aged 45 years. Mr. Meng came to Dover when a young boy and for a number of years was in the employ of his cousin Dr. Ed Meng, who owned the drug store at that time. Later he studied pharmacy and became a registered druggist and owner of the drug store at this place. Mr. Meng was a pure minded man, courteous and kind in his treatment to all and when it was learned that such a useful life was nearing the end, there was heartfelt sorrow expressed by the whole community. On March 12, 1890, he was married to Miss Dora M. Haggard, who survives him, also one sister, Miss Nellie Meng of Sedalia and two brothers, James and Thomas Meng, of St. Louis. His funeral was preached at his late home by Charles H. Plattenburg and burial was made in the Dover cemetery under the auspices of the I. O. O. F. and the W. O. For lack of room to accommodate our patrons we have moved our dining room in the storeroom adjoining us on the east. The room we formerly used as a dining room we have fitted up as a rest-room, which our friends and patrons are invited to make use of when down town. Here will be found comfortable seats, writing material, papers and magazines. Ladies from the country are especially invited to make themselves at home here.

Respectfully,
MRS. L. E. MARK.
